Eh ...

What is up with this system, having exams for 9 consecutive days ??

It's been 6 days already since the exam. Got a hold of yourself already ! Anyway, grades for most subjects are out now. How are your grades ?

Trust your cunni for once ! I am gonna be fine ! Considering how much I studied, my grades won't be worse than before ! If I still fail, that means there is something wrong with the system. Anyway, I just need to check national language score.

I wouldn't call you "cunni" !

So-hui's pace seems to have dropped and she hasn't done as good as before this time.

And you can trust me on the national language score !

Looks like you are fairly confident on the national language

Well, it's my favorite subject after all. Despite of the fact that our home teacher has some tempers, he is fairly good at the subject ~

Hmm ?

Wow, it's out already ? What, I can't even see well !

I ... can't see at all.

You stay there ! I am gonna get closer and take a look ! What was your number again ?

Huh ?

Hey, hey, what's up with that zero ?

Who's 24 in our class ?

Puhahaha, who got that zero ?!

24
Isn't that Bom ?

Um ... , teacher ...

What is it.

I think my grade came out wrong. It said zero...

Even if I wanted to give you a different grade, I don't have your answer sheet

Pardon? But I did submit mine

What I have here is 49 answer sheets with names and one answer sheet without a name.

There is no name on this.

Can't be. I did write my name down ... !!

You wrote your name down? So, this isn't yours then

Where is your answer sheet, huh ?

I ... apologize about not writing my name down ! But considering the situation, that answer sheet is mine !

If you had told me about this ... !!

Next year, you will have the SAT ... All senior students in Korea ...

Will have the same exam at the same time. They will be using an answer sheet called OMR instead of this old-fashioned answer sheet.

Hundreds of thousands of answer sheets will be gathered ... Are you going to claim that an answer sheet without a name is yours ?

If so, how will you prove that it is indeed yours ?

If you do that there, you will feel far, far, more worse than you do now

I hope you won't make the same mistake ever again from this point on !

Do remember what happened today for your own sake

Hold a corner of that desk.

I might break your bone if you move or bend down

If your brain cannot remember, then your body has to
